About DD Free DTH

DD Free DTH is India's only Free Direct-To-Home Service previously known as DD Direct +. This service was launched in December 2004. DD Free DTH is owned and operated by Public Service Broadcaster Prasar Bharati (Doordarshan).

What is DTH ?

DTH is Direct to Home service for receiving TV service directly through satellite with a personal small DTH antenna. DTH service does not require a receiver for receiving TV service at home.

What is DD Free DTH?

Doordarshan's DTH service which known as DD Free DTH was launched in December 2004 with the modest capacity of 33 channels. This service was approved by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India. DD Free DTH has been upgraded from time to time. At present its capacity is 104 SDTV channels along with 40 Radios. DD Free DTH is available in Ku-Band on GSAT-15 (at 93.5°E). This Ku-Band DTH service provides the TV coverage throughout the Indian territory (except Andaman Islands). DTH signals can be received through a small sized DTH receive system (i.e. Set Top Box and DTH of size of 60 to 90 cm in diameter)

Offer Description:

- With Zing Dish Tv 2 In 1 FTA Set Top New DTH Connection, you can enjoy the best of entertainment in digital clarity coupled with maximum channels.
- The offer price also includes 24-month activation of DD FTA Pack Subscription. You can use this set top box on any TV and you can also subscribe through dish tv customer care or mobile app. Set Top Box Delivery will be done by courier,
